Chapter 1 by Sapphire Rivers

It stuck midnight. The twelve sister crept out of the bed and opened a portal into another dimension. They stepped through carefully, their faces looked grim. They walked through the field until they came to a river, exactly twelve boats weighted for them and they carefully stepped on to them while the oarsmen rowed.

They soon arrived at a dark palace. The sisters walked in, inside there was a ball. They came to twelve brothers who knelt before them, and they were given the option, to dance or to marry them. They all chose to dance. Music started and other couples joined, they were all non-human creatures. They were all under the watchful eye of an evil king who sat upon a dark throne. Their names were Rose, Lily, Poppy, Daisy, Camellia, Blossom, Chrysanthemum, Violet, Peony, Carnation, Tulip, and Petunia.

Blossom, the youngest daughter.

I barley looked at him. The prince I dance with every night. The curse was brought on from our cousin who had said "Do not take me for a wife, I have twelve cousins who would be more suitable". We dance throughout the night, after dancing for so long we all dance as graceful as butterflies. I can't bear to think how long this would go on. I look up at him, he is stunning, with his dark god like looks, but I know how evil he truly is.
